

The National Association of Broadcasters are trying to protect their own gift from the public by trying to stop satellite radio from exercising its rights to compete fairly in the radio business. There is already too much concentration of ownership represented by the NAB. I believe the FCC should reject NAB's petition 04-160.